IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO.638 OF 2004

M/s.Rajni Enterprises & Ors..Petitioners

Versus

State of Maharashtra & Ors...Respondents

Mr. Vinod Singh for the Petitioner
Mr. Milind More, A.G.P. for Respondent Nos. 1 and 2.
Mr. A.S. Desai, for Respondent No.3 and 4.

CORAM: F.I. REBELLO, J.
DATE : 15th October,2004

P.C.:

1. Heard forthwith. The petition was dismissed amongst other grounds that the judgment of the Full Bench of this Court had been stayed by the Apex Court and consequently it was open to the bank to proceed to make recoveries. Learned Counsel contends that there are other grounds which were raised in the petition which were tampering of the documents and some documents were not given. There is no merit in the said contentions as they are usual grounds by defaulters of banks merely with a view to delay the payment of the loans advanced to them. Even other wise they relate to appreciation of evidence which this Court in the exercise of its extra ordinary jurisdiction would not interfere with. Hence Writ Petition rejected.
